- Promotion and development of agency voluntarism through: (i) placement on our Internet database at www.volunteerhalton.ca; (ii) media coverage of volunteer opportunities; (iii) volunteer columns in the local newspapers, radio, cable TV
- Free use of Boardroom for meetings and presentations (booking required)
- Discount of 20% on reports and publications produced by the CDH
- Subscription to Community Dispatch, an info-fax on community issues
- You will receive the Community Lens, a bulletin with Halton specific community data
- Access to the CDH & VH specialized resource centre (2,000 titles)
- Reduced registration fee on selected workshops and seminars
- Online advertising of your special events
- Receive two hours a year of consultation time on volunteer management issues
- National Volunteer Week celebrations
- Use of banner "Thank you Volunteers" for special events
- Participate in CDH program working groups – Volunteerism Halton and Social Planning
- Nominate candidates to the Board of Directors of Community Development Halton
- Voting privileges at the Annual General Meeting

Any individual, organization and agency, that wishes to become a member of the Community Development Halton, pays a fee (see Membership Registration form). Much of this fee underwrites the cost of maintaining the Internet on-line volunteer database.

Only those that are members may place volunteer requests on this database.

If an agency wishes to apply for exception to these fee guidelines, please contact the Executive Director of the Community Development Halton.

For more information please call us at 905-632-1975 or email at office@cdhalton.ca.
